

Elena & Marco Morales

May your Christmas be merry and bright, filled with the magic that only this special season can bring.
Sending love from our little family to yours.

Sofia started kindergarten this fall and declared on day one that she was going to be the teacher's helper — and she has been ever since.

Marco took up woodworking during weekends and surprised Elena with a hand-carved jewelry box for their anniversary.

Peanut the beagle has fully settled into his role as Sofia's most loyal shadow and Christmas ornament taste-tester.
